Gwyneth’s weekly Goop on-line newsletter and she may have a $20,000 dress but there is also something from J. Crew. Paltrow mixes it up, which I like. And her healthful tips are timely. I will visit her Goop store and it should be fun.”

PALTROW HAS BEEN PANNE for offering some very expensive items not suitable for the average homemaker. But who doesn’t want to know how the other half lives? (And spends its money?) We are listening, Gwyneth… Who is next? Monica Lewinsky with romance tips?

THE GOLD COAST NEIGHBORS ASSOC. will present a spring event, Toast to the Coast, 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 13, at the Racquet Club, 1365 N. Dearborn Pkwy., with cocktails, hors d’oeuvres, music by Stanley Paul, live and silent auctions. Tickets are $125 and $150.

Co-chairs are: Gabrielle Welsberg, Kimberly Gleeson. Committee members include: John Gable, Gerry Himmel, Marcia Northrup LaBarge, Samuel Lichtenfeld, Michael Perlstein, Tina Rotter, Chris Ryan, Susie Sondag, Peggy White, Abby Zanarini… This is always a special night of fellowship and fun.

JEFFERY LEVING, father’s rights activist, tells us “April 22 marks the 15th anniversary of Elian Gonzalez being united with his father in Cuba. I was proud to help reunite Elian with his dad. I never gave up hope for Elian because failure was not an option for me. This international custody case brought substantial awareness to fathers’ rights worldwide. I take exceptional pride in winning un-winnable cases and putting people places they never thought possible.”