

Renowned Attorney Jeffery M. Leving to Keynote National Families and Fathers Conference in Los Angeles

February 20, 2018

On Thursday, February 22, 2018, internationally renowned Fathers' Rights Attorney Jeffery M. Leving will be the keynote speaker at the 19th Annual Families and Fathers National Conference in Los Angeles, California.

Leving's topic, Social Justice to Improve Outcomes for Fathers, Children and Communities, will present critical information to attendees.

"For more than 15 years, I have supported Fathers and Families Coalition of America, championing the rights of children. Children must excel and be their best and have the support of both parents. Our future as a nation starts with building healthy communities," said Leving.

Attorney Jeffery M. Leving

Fathers and Families Coalition of America's National 19th Annual Conference will take place from February 19 to February 23, 2018 at the Sheraton Gateway LAX Hotel in Los Angeles. This prestigious Conference assembles nationally known leaders and experts in the field and presents important lectures, workshops and plenary discussions. The lecturers will address The Impact of Fatherlessness and The Fathers' Impact on Children's Development, among other topics.

Attorney Jeffery M. Leving is a pioneer in Fathers' Rights and has dedicated more than thirty years to strengthening healthy families and improving outcomes for children. He founded the Fatherhood Educational Institute in Chicago, which provides critical parenting skills to fathers and seeks to eliminate father absence.

Leving's work has been recognized by government leaders (including three U.S. Presidents and the Illinois House of Representatives), private industry, his peers, and non-profit agencies. His latest book, How to be a Good Divorced Dad, was praised by President Barack Obama and endorsed by the late Cardinal Francis George of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

To learn more about Jeffery M. Leving and his work, follow him on Twitter and Facebook.

