

Leving Firm Matrimonial Law Seminar: Use of 503g Trusts in Family Law Cases

📅 March 19, 2025

CHICAGO – The Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving Ltd. will host the next presentation of the Arthur S. Kallow Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Seminar Series on March 20th at 6:30 p.m. CDT at 225 W. Wacker Drive in Chicago.

Matrimonial attorney and Litigation Director James M. Hagler of the Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving Ltd., will be the keynote speaker, presenting on the use of 503g trusts in family law cases, highlighting how these trusts can be used to set aside funds for children’s support, physical and mental health, and education in both divorce and parentage cases. Attorney Hagler will also present on protecting assets and income in high-net-worth divorces and complex family disputes.

Attorney James Hagler was selected by his peers in the legal community as one of the best lawyers in America. Hagler is well known for his expertise in litigating complicated domestic custody cases and international custody matters.

“503(g) trusts are becoming an increasingly useful tool in family law, particularly for clients seeking to protect their children and their significant financial assets during divorce proceedings,” says attorney Jeffery M. Leving, the founder and president of the firm, who will facilitate the session. “This seminar will provide valuable insights into strategic planning for family law attorneys, equipping them with the knowledge to better serve their clients in complex family law cases.”

The presentation will be followed by a question-and-answer session.

Inquiries about this seminar should be made by emailing jwhiteside@levinglaw.com

The Arthur S. Kallow CLE Seminar Series

The Kallow CLE Seminar Series, which began in 2014, provides legal education to family law attorneys and other professionals looking to expand their legal knowledge. CLE credit will be awarded to attorneys attending. The series was created in the relentless pursuit of excellence to maintain dominance in the firm’s practice area with court successes.

Attorney Arthur S. Kallow was honored for his valuable contribution to the Domestic Relations Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County as a court facilitator.
